Yard Sale A Success

The Highland Park Neighborhood Association wishes to thank Janet Hasch for the successful yard sale which she conducted on Saturday, May 11, 1985. It was held in the empty lot across Park Boulevard from the Highland Park Information Center.

The yard sale showed a profit of about $200.00. This money will be used for the continued operation of the Information Center.

Janet feels that it could have been much more successful if more people had donated and come out to purchase items. Only about twelve people donated. Among those donating were all of the Hasch's, Dorothy Shepherd, Dorothy Perkins, Doretta Pollard, Bill Gatton, Mrs. Beisler, Alma Willis and James Price.

Mrs. Hasch did all of the sorting, washing of clothes, pricing and hauling the items to the yard sale location.

Everything that was left over was picked up by Jones Memorial United Methodist Church which is having a yard sale June 8, 1985.

Thank you Janet Hasch for all your hard work and devotion to Highland Park!!!

Festival Update

Are you marking your calendar? The Highland Park Annual Festival will be held on Saturday, August 3 in the parks on Park Boulevard between Wawa and Chicopee Avenues. This is always a fun day for all!

This year the Crime Prevention Car and McGruff will be attending too.

More information will soon be available. Make your plans now to attend and see all of your friends at the Highland Park Annual Festival!!!!!!

The new library which replaced the Highland Park Branch of the Louisville Free Public Library opened May 14 at 3323 Preston Highway. Dorothy Perkins and Pamela Binford attended the grand opening.

Mary Margaret Mulvihill gave the introduction and music was provided by the St. Xavier High School Band. There was a special recognition of Mr. Bill Ptacek of the Library.

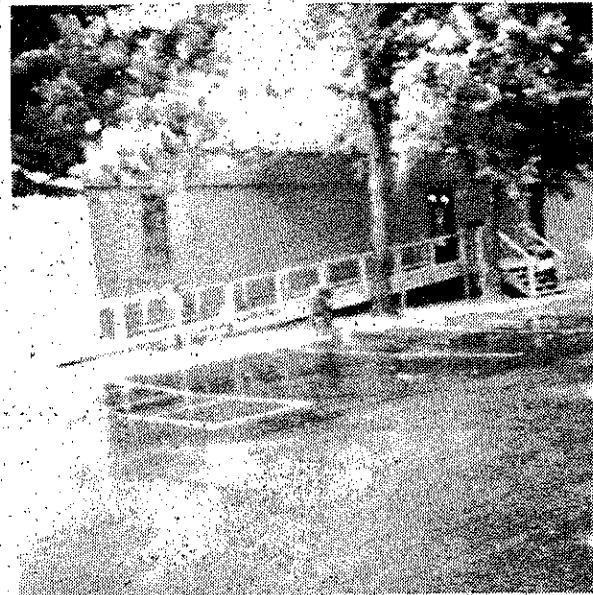

When you go, good parking space is available. The hours are:

Monday, Tuesday & Wednesday -
2:00 P.M. - 8:00 P.M.
Thursday, Friday & Saturday -
10:00 A.M. - 5:30 P.M.

"Be a Star...Read" is the theme is this year's Summer Reading Program. It began June 1. Just for "joining" the program, participants receive fun folders and rainbow stickers. When the child has read ten books, he/she will receive a pass to a local roller rink, admission to a Redbirds game, free french fries from Druther's, "I'm a Star" button and star stickers. Additional stickers will be awarded to those children who read more than 20 books, one star for each added five books read.

Children may pick up folders and stickers from June 1 to August 1, but may continue reading and complete their folders until August 31.

Stop by and see the new library and sign your children up to "Be a Star".

Utility Problems

On Tuesday, June 25 at 7:00 P.M. in the Salvation Army Building at 1010 Beecher Street, a public meeting will be held with local legislators to discuss utility problems. Many people are concerned about the frequent disruption of utility service for families who live on fixed and low incomes.

This meeting is planned to give you, the consumer, an opportunity to express to legislators concerns about:

- * the larger portion of your budget going for utilities' (at times going without needed medicine, food or rent)
- * amount of money needed to get service restored
- * continued threats of utility cut-offs
- * winter cut-offs

There is one possible solution. Consumer groups are recommending that legislators support a "Guaranteed Service Plan" for household utilities.

We are paying high utility bills. Together we can make a difference. Changes have already occurred in other states, however we need everyone's help. The first place to begin is with our legislators. Plan to attend this meeting.

Bulletin Board

Help Needed

Clarence D. Coon, Inc.

The Highland Park Information Center at 4447 Park Boulevard has started a new service.

If you are looking for a small job or need someone to do some work for you, come in and check the new Bulletin Board. Many services are listed.

If you wish to list a job, stop by and fill out a card.

This is another service of your Neighborhood Association!!

Captain Mercer from the Third District Police Station attended our Highland Park Neighborhood Association Council meeting on May 9.

He stated that the Block Watch Council needs a representative from the South End to serve on the board. The meetings are held the second Thursday of each month in the Mayor's Conference Room.

If you can help, contact Officer Baton at the Third District Police Station, 581-3489 or Karen Blanton, 776-3882.

Clarence D. Coon, Inc. is a family owned printing company located at 4473 Park Boulevard. It has been at its current location since 1979.

The company is owned by Charles Grey, one of three children of Samuel and Ettelene Grey. Mrs. & Mrs. Grey lived at 447 Hiawatha Avenue. Charles stated that there has been a Clarence D. Coon Printing Company for over 50 years.

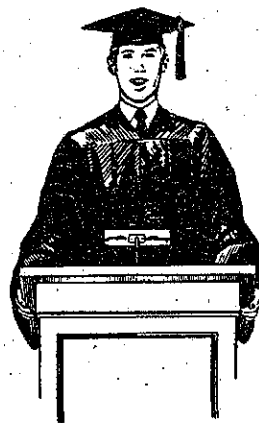

Charles is assisted by his wife Nellie. She lived at 4534 Crittenden Drive before their marriage. Currently, they live in the Beechmont area.

Charles has one hobby besides work. That is golf.

Thank You, Mayor!

Nora W. Gill of Park Blvd. would like to thank Mayor Harvey Sloane for the improved bus service to Highland Park. After Harding Avenue was closed to traffic, TARC changed the bus schedule and buses were coming through Highland Park only every two or three hours, most came only to Seneca Avenue and then out Crittenden Drive.

Mrs. Gill works downtown two days a week and needs the bus service.

Petitions were passed around and signed and pastors had members of their churches sign them also to have the schedule changed. Mrs. Gill then called the Mayor's Hotline and he talked to TARC officials. The Mayor came out to Highland Park with people from TARC. The Mayor then persuaded TARC to increase service.

The result is that now buses serve Highland Park about every half hour. Thank you Mayor Sloane and TARC!!!

Sympathy

Family & Children's Agency recognizes the value of services to enrich family life and to provide support and understanding during life's difficult times. We invite you, your neighbors, and acquaintances to participate in the following workshops and programs.

DIVORCE ADJUSTMENT

This workshop is designed for men and women in an uneasy transition period. It first identifies normal emotional stages of loneliness, grief and anger. It proposes ways to cope with feelings and manage disruptive changes one might expect. It touches on handling persisting feelings of attachment to a former mate and the reactions of friends and relatives. Finally, sessions introduce means of maintaining, enhancing and developing new relationships.
